Information about the different Services and events

Muslim Prayers: See the Chaplain for more information if you want to gather with other Muslim students and staff to pray corporately at lunchtimes.

Chapel Chocolate: An opportunity for pupils staying after school to have a drink, snack, and some time out for chat and catching up. There may be a brief 'thought for the day' at the end

Guild meeting: A weekly meeting for the Chapel Team, otherwise known as the 'Guild of Sacristans and Servers'. See overleaf for information about the Guild.

Christian Union: An opportunity for pupils, both Christians and those exploring the faith, to gather in an informal setting and find out about the Christian faith, through talks, videos, presentations and Bible study. Refreshments and games are also on offer.

Other Information

The School Lay Chaplain, Mr Millward, is available at any time for all members of the school community. If you need informal advice or help, prayer or just some time out, feel free to pop into his office behind St Nic's, or contact him on millwardp@leicestergrammar.org.uk. Other key members of staff involved in the life of the Chapel include Dr Ainge (School organist), Mrs McPherson (Director of Music), and Mr Ashwin (Singing teacher and Choir Director).

The Guild of Sacristans and Servers, or the Chapel Team is a group of pupils who assist with the running of the more formal services in Chapel, and seek to help out in other areas of school life. Please contact the Chaplain if you would like to be involved.

Confirmation Classes are available for members of the Church of England who wish to be confirmed. These would normally take place in the Lent Term. Anyone who wishes to explore the Christian faith more informally is invited to attend the weekly Christian Union meeting. In either case, please feel free to contact the Chaplain.

The Oasis is a small space next to Mr Millward's office, where any members of the community can go for a moment of quiet, reflection or prayer.
